Dear Monmouth-Roseville parents,

I write to inform you that police were informed about an alleged threat to Monmouth-Roseville Junior High School that was made late last night. The Warren County Sheriff's Department is investigating the incident and do not believe the threat was credible. Out of an abundance of caution, there will be extra police presence in and around our schools today.

We will continue to monitor this situation closely and ask for your help in reminding your child that it is never appropriate to make threats of violence against anyone. We also encourage our community to follow the adage “if you see something, say something.”

Thank you for your patience and support.

Edward D. Fletcher,
Superintendent
